

Julian Wood

February 28, 1922 - January 18, 2009

Julian E. Wood, 86, of Danville Virginia died January 18, 2009 at Salem Health and Rehabilitation Center, Salem Virginia. He was born February 28, 1922 to Eva Reaves Carter Wood and John Henry Wood. He was predeceased in death by his parents. Mr. Wood was a machinist who had been employed by Martinsville Machine Works before his retirement. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He was predeceased by six brother and sisters: Joseph S. Wood of Danville, Va., Tommy Wood of Danville, Va., Adison Wood of Arizona, Frances Coward of California, Ruth Wood of Danville, Va., and Edna Beggerly of Dry Fork, Va.. He was also predeceased by a half brother, Jimmy Wood and a stepmother, Mary I. Wood of Chatham, Va. Mr. Wood is survived by three half brothers and two half sisters: Henry Wood of California, Walter Wood of Chatham, Va., Ronnie Wood of Axton, Va., Lorraine W. Anderson of California, and Louise W. Vann of Alabama. In honor of Julian's request, his body will be cremated. A private memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorials may be made to a charity of the donors' choice. Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Wood family