“ Justin had such a huge heart and undying love for his bride-for-life Raquel. I was one of the lucky ones to get to spend some time with this couple in the middle of the forest and enjoy Gods beauty with them both over several days. There was no hiding the love and admiration he had for Raquel. This world would be a better place if only half the men had Justins wisdom, work ethic and character. My heart breaks for Raquel and no words I scribe will dry her tears, but know that you both left a mark on my heart that I will forever cherish, to strive to be a better man, husband and father because of your kindness. May God bless you and your child, shine light upon your souls and allow you to hold and cherish his memory forever.

“ I have been so upset since hearing of Justin's passing. I thought so much of him growing up. I have many memories of us riding the school bus together to and from Woodlawn year after year. I remember he was always so well mannered and so sweet... I'm certain that never changed. Please know i am praying for his entire family. May God give you peace and comfort as only He can. My deepest condolences, Christina Gregory Rust.
