“ I lived in Blanch for 10 years during which I had the fortune to work alongside Katherine in Danville and Pittsylvania County schools. Her authenticity , values, and kindness made a profound impression on me as I grew and matured. She was intelligent and wonderful. John Washburn Nelson County Va.

“ We loved Katherine so much. So glad that we met her and her family several years ago during tough times, but something great came out of it, a beautiful friendship and sibling relationships. She was like a grandma to my kids. We will miss her so much on our family trips with her granddaughter. Rest in peace Katherine, you fought a good fight. You will be with us in spirit. We love  you.
