“ Kay was my cousin as Uncle Roy was my Mother's brother. Every time I saw Kay she was upbeat and jolly always smiling. Although we only saw each other out and about it was so good to see her. I went to see Aunt Elizabeth one day two weeks ago and her neighbor said that she was at Vickie's.. I am so sorry about Kay and also will see the family Thursday night

“ Steve, I am so sorry to hear about Kay. I never got to me her. My memories are of you and Don when we were very young on Woodlawn Drive when your Dad and the family visited Susie Farmer and Anna Blair. They were you some of your dad's sisters. Great Memories I hope to get to see you when I get to Danville again. I still have two sisters that still live there Susan Stilwell and Judy Vipperman. God Bless you and the Family.
