“ I am extremely saddened, . by the passing of Kieth. He did the best work of anyone I know it was flawless and worth every cent. You knew it was gonna be perfect. Whenever I called, he came he did some strange jobs for me that are too funny to print right now, but he will surely be missed as a friend to my family. My mother who just passed at 95 called on him all the time and just the week he died. He did some thing for me at her house rest in peace Kieth you will be missed deep with sympathies to your family 🙏🙏. Kathleen Harris

“ Like many, I was stunned by the passing of Keith. He worked on literally dozens of houses for me over the last 15 years from Danville to Blacksburg and across North Carolina - even down to Charlotte including family property. He was an expert painter and took pride in everything he did. He last painted for me at my father's house who passed away last year as we prepared the home for sale. At the completion of every project he would walk through and point out anything that was slightly off - things no one else would notice. Beyond painting he could tackle almost any construction job. Keith worked as hard as anyone I ever met and a genuinely great guy and friend. Condolences to his family.

“ I just recently met Keith through my nursing organization. I met him and his sweet mother Virginia and I can honestly say he was a very nice and kind man who took great care of his mother Virginia! Although it was briefly that I knew him I will never forget his kindness! My prayers are with his lovely family!
