“ You are now pain free and strolling those streets of gold... I was blessed to have known you. May god hold your family tight and pour his peace upon them.

“ I will never forget the time I was told you had a special thing you wanted to do, and that was to ride in a Limousine. I thank God I could make that special moment happen for you. You were a delightful friend Keith. God bless you. Now you can ride those golden streets in as many Limousines as you want!!

Yes, thank you, Brenda. He has had so many wonderful people in his life, wish there was enough room to mention each and everyone, and all the beautiful things they did and what they meant to him.
