“ We'll miss Kenny at church always getting there early sitting outside talking and telling fishing adventures he's done and greeting people when they arrived! This past Saturday was the day we usually had our annual stew at church which Kenny was the head stewardmaster over for years and I always look forward to being Kenny's helper even in rain and cold sometimes but the fellowship with him was priceless and we will miss him! I will see ya again one day my brother in Christ!

“ Kenny will be greatly missed in our church and in our home. Such a dear friend to us and we truly enjoyed his company. It will be so sad to walk into church on Sunday morning and not see him standing there with a welcoming smile on his face or be able to cook his favorite dish for him anymore. Our hearts break for the family and our prayers are with you all. I know Marvin will miss you so much Kenny as I will too. We will be praying for Frances, sweet lady you added so much joy to his heart. Rest with Jesus and we will see you in heaven Kenny, what a precious day that will be. Much love friend, much love.

“ Kenny was a wonderful , kind man and we both shared the love of reading. Thanks for all the great books, magazines, and newspapers you shared with me. You will be so very missed by all your Neighbors and friends. Francis came alive when you came into her life, enjoyed our group trips to beach . Praying for Francis as her heart is broken and rest of your family especially Patsy that I had pleasure to meet. Praying

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. I only met Kenny a couple of times. I am a friend of Frances and I do know he was the apple of her eyes. When he come into her life she was the happiest I have ever known her to be. May the Lord give her and the rest of you the strength during the days ahead.

Kenneth and I go way back as kids. I've eaten many meals at his house and we rode the bus together. Our farms adjoined at Spring Garden Road. He was such a good guy.
