“ Oh Ms. Kimmie what I wouldn't do to have not got the news that you had left us here to push onward. While my heart breaks for those you left behind and in a jealous way my own as we had only recently reconnected after many years apart. But I can't stop rejoicing for the view that awaited you as you passed through the gates and I know you heard those much sought after words from your Heavenly Father...welcome my good and faithful servant. I have built this home for you for your eternal place for peace ...where there is no pain ...only joy and love. Enjoy your time with all those whom have gone before us. Now I ask you to pray and watch over us as you are now our angel. Many prayers to Steve and the rest of the family that Kim loved so much!

“ Kim was so much fun at Langston, Jr. High School. We had so much fun participating in The Lionettes together. Those football games and the parades! I'll never forget the one in Winston-Salem! She always had a smile on her face. At GWHS, she was so beautiful and I remember her laugh. I hadn't seen Kim in over 30 years, but kept in touch with her through FB. My heart goes out to Steve, her sons, all her family, and especially her grandson, Shia. She was so proud of him! She is now watching over him and will protect him. God Bless.
