“ From Jr High School all the way through the halls of GWHS Class of 1966, Larry was an always congenial, engaging, favorite classmate of everyone.

He was always your friend in any class, any situation and a person you could depend on every day. Larry was one of the most cordially admired people in our class every day because of his character and welcoming mind in every situation, every day. Larry was a light and now sorely missed. - ed martin

“ I've known Larry since elementary school and worked with him at Goodyear. I am greatly saddened by his passing. Until recently he had emailed me frequently with notes of wisdom and advice and sometimes just interesting videos as in the last one in August. My deepest condolences to his family. Larry was a quiet gentleman and a true friend for 70 years. May God bless.
