“ I am so sorry to hear of Larry's passing. I just found out today. I worked with Larry on many different projects in some pretty tight spots and he always had a great attitude. He was a great strength when the rest of us were weak. He will be sorley missed.

“ Our sincere condolences to all of the family in this time of sadness and loss. I have a great memory of Larry towering over the gallery at the Wyndam Golf Tournament a few years ago when he, Monica and Jake were there with me. When Sergio Garcia was trying to make a bunker shot to get into a playoff, on the tv replay, Larry was behind him. Looked magnificent.

“ I am sad to hear Larry passed away! I really liked Larry! I thank Jehovah God for the promise of a ressurection, without that hope I don't know how any of us would deal with the death of a loved one. (Matt.22:30" As regards the resurrection of the dead, did YOU not read what was spoken to YOU by God, saying,?I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?? He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.?)

“ I'm so, deeply, sorry to hear of Larry's passing. The world truly lost a gentle soul. He possessed a twinkle in those kind, blue eyes...you just knew there was a kind soul behind them. I was fortunate to have known Larry, worked for and with Larry for a number of years and I feel honored to call him "friend". He was loved by many, he had such a great sense of humor, wit and vibrant personality! I know he never met a stranger or had a single enemy in this world.

“ We can hardly remember a time when Larry was not a part of our lives. We have shared so many of the adventures and struggles of life with him. There were the joys of youth,the joys of parenting and the joys and changes of midlife. Larry was always a part of these special times for us. He was there to comfort and to celebrate, he was there to give advice and to simply just be present when the time called for that. We will miss him but we will always carry with us his memory and his joy for living. He will never be duplicated. Party on dear friend, party on.....Love, Kurt and Becky

“ *As we walk our path of life,
We meet people everyday.
Most are simply met by chance.
But, some are sent our way.*

*These become special friends
Whose bond we can't explain;
The ones who understand us
And share our joy and pain.*

*...Their love contains no boundaries.
So, even we are apart.
Their presence enhances us
With a warmth felt in the heart.*

*This love becomes a passageway,
When even the miles disappear.
And so, these friends, God sends our way,
Remain forever near.*

Love you Larry, RIP!

“ To the Coleman Family, I am sorry for your loss. I send my condolences to you and yours.

The Bible makes it clear that God did not originally intend for humans to die.

How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions? Well, the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Isaiah 26:19; Psalms 37:29.

Jesus Christ himself said: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28&29; and also Acts 24:15 says: "That there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."

May Jehovah God and Jesus Christ be with you and your Family?
