

Larry Edward Thompson

August 23, 1952 - January 21, 2026

Larry Edward Thompson, 73, of 340 Hampton Drive, Danville, VA passed away on Wednesday, January 21, 2026 at his residence.

Larry was born in Danville, VA on August 23, 1952, a son of the late Sterling Edward "Jack" Thompson and Hazel Dean Johnson Thompson. He spent all of his life in the Danville area where he owned and operated Thompson Painting and Wallpaper. He was a member of Woodberry Hills Baptist Church. He was an avid fisherman.

Survivors include his son, Ben Thompson and wife Brandi; daughter, Kim Pyron and husband, Scott; grandchildren, Parker Thompson, Peyton Thompson, Adalyn Thompson, Jessica Pyron and Jordan Mell; five great grandchildren; and sisters, Janet Tiede (Tom) and Cathy Salmon (Robert).

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, March 14, 2026 at 12:00 P.M. at Woodberry Hills Baptist Church with Pastor Richard Motley officiating. The family will receive friends prior to the service from 11:00 A.M. to 12:00 P.M. at the church.

Memorial donations can be made to the Danville/Pittsylvania County Cancer Association at 223 Riverview Dr Suite J, Danville, VA 24541.

The family would like to express a sincere thank you to Shirley Adkins at the Danville Cancer Center for all her love and care given to Larry during this time.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Thompson family.

I went to church with Larry he was a brave soul. Never complain much about his fight with cancer. He loved to fish with my cousins Allen & Janet they loved Larry. Not until today I knew his daughter Kim I wish I could have known before so I could have told him. We live in a small world. Kim so sorry for your loss of your daddy. Condolences to all the family's especially the sisters. Larry no more pain, I will miss you my friend. RIP until we meet again, Love & Prayers Vicky Rye & Rodney Shelton
