“ I will always cherish the love my Aunt Lee showed me throughout my life. I will always remember the quiet summer afternoons sharing stories and laughs on the carport at her home. I also will never forget her explaining to me that "if you are going to be a Kahle, you have to drink coffee". My prayers go out to Michael, Vicky, Uncle Wallace and the rest of the family during this time of loss. I am comforted by the knowledge that she is at home and with Lynn again. My love to all. Eric
