“ Kim, Lee and Family:

We were so very sad to hear about Mrs. Moore's passing. What a sweet lady she was the one time I met her. That was when we ordered one of her delicious cakes. Since we both were in the Brosville community, she asked me to meet her at the shopping center to pick up the cake. When she got out of the car with the cake, I couldn't help but chuckle. The cake was almost as big as she was!!! A huge coconut cake which was outstanding. We chatted a minute and then she was on her way. I could tell from that short meeting what a fine lady she was. I know each of you will miss her so much. Take care and please accept our heartfelt sympathy.

Her loss will not only be a loss to each of you but to the community as well. I saw the photo Kim posted on Facebook at Mother's Day and thought she looked really good. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you as you face the future without this lovely one.*

“ *Lisa and Family,
My father spent a good part of his childhood across the hollow, at Tommy, Rebecca Hundley house on Sandy River,. I heard him tell many stories about the three of them sitting around the piano listening while Mrs. Hundley played. I too was fortunate to grow up around Mr.and Mrs Hundley and hear her play. My father would take me over there to visit many times. I would listen as Mrs. Hundley told stories about Lila and her growing up on the river. I am so sorry for your loss, but I know Mr. Hundley, Lila and daddy are sitting around that piano today in Heaven listing to Mrs Hundley play that piano. God will keep you all close in the coming days.May he comfort you and give you peace.

“ Lila was my friend before she became a Moore. We lived just miles apart but to get to her home we walked thru the woods, down a hill, then up a hill to get to her home. My sympathy to all of you, Kim Ellen, Lisa, Frannie Lynn and Robbie. She was a very strong and dear person.
