

Linda L. Campbell

May 9, 1946 - October 9, 2024

Linda L. Campbell, 78, of Danville, went home to be with her Lord on October 9, 2024.

Born May 9, 1946, in Danville, she was the daughter of the late James G. Turner and Georgie Jackson Turner.

Linda worked for Walmart as a Door Greeter and retired after 25 years of employment. She enjoyed helping others and loved talking to and putting smiles on the faces of everyone who walked through the doors at Walmart. On Saturday mornings, Linda would go to the local yard sales to find stuffed animals and toys for Children's Church. She was a past member of Central Boulevard Church of God until her health prevented her from attending.

She loved decorations for all seasons and holidays. You would always see the decorations displayed on her fence and around her yard. She had a great love for all animals, but she especially loved her three cats.

Linda is survived by her daughter, Rejeana Nelson, and her husband, Robert; a grand-daughter, Jennifer Fochler, and her husband, Daniel; a grand-dog, CoCo; special friends, Warner Collins and Nancy Swanson and many friends too numerous to count.

A celebration of life will be held on Friday, October 11, 2024 at 6:00 p.m. at Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Home, Westover Chapel with Pastor Paul Armstrong officiating. The family will receive friends from 5:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Danville Area Humane Society, 996 South Boston Road, Danville, VA 24540.

Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Home, Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Campbell family.

“ Linda was one of the nicest people. I use to work at Walmart with her and would win stuff animals out the claw machine and I would give them to her to pass out to the children at her church. She kept one of the stuffed owls and she kept it in her car. Rest easy my friend.
