

Linda Crawford

January 27, 1947 - January 27, 2011

Linda Black Crawford

Linda Black Crawford, age 64 of Danville, VA, died Thursday evening, January 27, 2011 at home after a decline in health of the past several months.

She was born in Danville, daughter of Forest Lynwood Black Jr. and Frances H. Black. She retired in 2010 from her position as Supervisor of Medical Records for St. Lukes Institute in Silver Spring, Maryland.

In addition to her mother she is survived by her sister, Reva Janet Black, of Danville, and a son Mark Alan Crawford of Sarasota, Florida.

The family will be at the residence of her mother 326 N. Woodberry Avenue Danville Va.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is serving the Crawford family.

Tribute Wall

SD

“ Though I only knew you for a short time, I bare witness to your courage and strength. I was also blessed to witness the love, respect and compassion your sister Reva has for you as she struggled bravely to make your last request come true. You are free to fly...

Stacy Dallas - January 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM