

Linda Saunders

July 25, 1947 - June 9, 2020

Linda Duncan Saunders, 72, of 134 Sunset Place, Danville, VA, went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, June 9, 2020, after being in declining health for the past four years.

Linda was born in Danville, VA, on July 25, 1947, a daughter of the late Henry Duncan and the late Emily Odell Logan Duncan Lindsey. Linda had lived most of her life in the Ringgold Community and in Danville, VA. She was a graduate of Dan River High School, Class of 1966, and she received her degree in Nursing from Danville Community College. Linda had retired from the former Danville Regional Medical Center. She was of the Baptist Faith. She loved to do quilting and she was part of a local quilting group.

Linda was married to the late James William (J.W.) Saunders, Jr., who died on December 25, 2006.

Linda is survived by a son, Terry L. Duncan (Kellie), of Ringgold, VA; a sister, Kathy D. Knowles, of Danville, VA; five grandchildren, Elizabeth Claire Duncan, Brandon Wayne Duncan, Brittany Tracy Duncan, James Daniel Brian Duncan, and Joseph Adam Lane Duncan; and three great-grandchildren, Rylie Catherine May, Memphis Rhett Williams, and Jase Duncan.

She was predeceased by a son, Scotty Haymore.

A Private Memorial Service for Linda will be conducted at a later date.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Saunders Family.

“ I was so saddened to find out about Linda. We worked in the OR together for many years and became great friends. My prayers go out to Kathy and her family. It's been many years since Linda and I saw each other, but I thought of her often. She was a great fan of Ricky Van Shelton, and we listened to his music many times in the operating room. Rest in peace Linda.
