“ My dear cousin. I'm going to miss you but I know the last few years have been a struggle for you. I know you were ready to go. I'll always remember all the fun times we had as kids—running around playing in the country and those wonderful family get-togethers on top of the mountain. What a great family we were blessed with. Love you and miss you already. 💕💕

You died a day after my Dave. I never knew. I always wondered what happened to you and now I know. But I don't know why. We were best friends in Danville. I lived down the street from you on Nelson Ave. My daughter is Lisa and my son is Sam. I have always tried to get in touch with you but you never answered my posts. I will never forget you
