“ Christie, God Bless you and the rest of your family ~ I didn't know your mother well, but every time I saw her, she had that precious smile on her face. Know that you have a beautiful angel to watch over you and Amber. Cherish the times you spent with her and don't dwell on the negative thoughts. <3

Sorry Autumn....I don't know why I always think of you as an Amber. I know you are like your mom, stronger than you think.

I will miss Linda. The nurse said yesterday that your Mama must have been a stunningly beautiful woman. I assured her she was because even in death she still was beautiful. Take comfort in knowing you took care of her the way you wanted. No one can ever take that away from you. Prayers.
