

Lloyd Everette Slayton Jr.

November 15, 1946 - February 27, 2026

Lloyd Everette Slayton, Jr., 79 of Ringgold, Virginia, passed away on February 27, 2026, at Stuart Community Hospital in Stuart, Virginia, following a decline in health over the past two years.

Born on November 15, 1946 in Danville, Virginia, Lloyd was the son of the late Lloyd Everette Slayton, Sr. and Velma Hundley Slayton. He proudly served his country in the United States Navy, where he was stationed in Vietnam during his time of service.

After returning home, Lloyd began a dedicated career with the United States Postal Service. He faithfully served for many years and later became a supervisor in the Merrifield, Virginia Distribution Center where he worked for over 27 years. He also worked several years as an inspector with Builders Discount Center in Danville, Virginia. Lloyd spent the majority of his life in Danville and Manassas, Virginia, forming lasting friendships and deep roots in both communities.

Lloyd was a proud member of Danville Elks Lodge #227 and was of the Baptist faith. He was known for his steady work ethic, loyalty, and quiet strength.

An animal lover, Lloyd shared a special bond with his beloved horse, Trigger, and his faithful cat, Stormy, who brought him much comfort and joy throughout the years.

Lloyd is survived by his loving wife of thirty-four years, Barbara Ann Slayton, who stood by his side through life's many seasons.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at a later date along with burial at Arlington National Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial contributions be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, ALSAC/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105 or to God's Pit Crew, 2499 North Main Street, Danville, VA 24540.

Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Homes, North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the Slayton family.
