

Lonnie Vernon Busby II

November 5, 1962 - September 10, 2013

Lonnie Vernon Busby, II, 50, of Danville died Tuesday, September 10, 2013 after being in declining health for several years.

He was born November 5, 1962 a son of Lonnie Vernon Busby and Dora Mae Swift Busby. Mr. Busby served in the United States Marine Corps and was a member of American Legion Dan River Post 1097. He worked at Nikki's Restaurant and later at the Speed Zone.

He is survived his wife, Sheila Marie Busby, a daughter, Summer Nicole Holmes; adopted son Christopher Busby, of Danville, VA; adopted daughter Jessica Busby Davis of Charlottesville, VA; granddaughter, Teagan Marie Holmes; two sisters, Linda Busby of Danville and Loretta B. Keelin and husband, Kendal of Jacksonville, NC and a brother, Johnny W. Holt and wife, Becky of Danville.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday, September 12, 2013 at 7:00 P.M. at Community Baptist Church on Iris Lane by the Reverend James Albert. The family will receive friends following the service and also at the residence of his brother, 124 Westhampton Avenue.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is assisting the Busby family. Online condolences at www.wrenn-yeatts.com.

“ I met Buzz when he was a deputy and I was a dispatcher for the Pittsylvania County Sheriff's Office. We became fast friends and shared many laughs during our time working together. I can honestly say that Buzz was one of the best police officers I've ever had the pleasure of working with, even when he was making traffic stops every 15 minutes. ;)

Buzz was intelligent, wonderful with people, and always ready to serve others whenever there was a need. The world is a better place because Buzz was in it.

Go rest high, my friend and brother. Go rest high.
