“ I was so shocked to hear of Lori passing. I had just put a lot of my pictures of my friends from Danville Community College in a new album. There was pretty Lori...in so many of the pictures. I said to my daughter, I had so much fun with these people and they were like family for the couple of years we traveled that road together. That has been 32 years ago, but I saw her here and there through the years. My the Lord be very near to her family now and in the years to come. I am praying for you. Love, Sandy L. Williams

“ My grandpa was sick.. I came home and you were literally out there mowing our yard and had Davey and Daniel helping with our animals so we didn't have to worry. We didn't even have to ask.... you were the definition of a beautiful sweet woman. The kindness you had in your heart is indescribable. Thank you Mrs.Adams for everything. I sure will miss seeing you across the road 🥹🙏 May you Rest In Paradise

“ I miss my former partner and my friend. We shared many conversations. I will miss our talks more than anything. I pray that God embraces her family, the family that she was devoted to. There is a peace that surpasses all understanding and I wish that for all who are heartbroken over her transition.
