“ From the family of Sallie Jones Morris, we are so sorry for your loss. Since mom was raised by Granny Reid, Lori was an older sister to her. She talks of her life often growing up and the love she has for Lori, Doug, Vernelle and the rest. Though she has lost touch with the entire family, it does not take away from the love she still has and the memories that she treasures. We pray God will comfort you and hold you and send you sweet memories. Please know, Mom sends each family member her love and is thankful for the love the Ganey family showed her and blessed her with.

“ To the best mom in the whole world - you were tittle but mighty!! You went through some hard struggles in your life & overcame them all with strength & dignity. You were a widow in your 20's & managed to raise us 4 girls with strict discipline, taking us all to church every time the doors were open, teaching us how to live good & moral lives. When we became adults, you took on the task of becoming a stepmom to 5 more children, who learned to love & appreciate you as we did. You became a widow again & endured that pain with dignity & added strength. I enjoyed all the times we spent together, even our hour long telephone conversations, , our "girl talks", lunches & shopping. I pray to have the strength that you had , the sweet personality, the wit, & the never ending pride which you exhibited to the end. I was selfish & didn't want you to go but God wanted you more & wrapped his loving arms around you & gently took you to your new heavenly home. I will miss you everyday until we have our reunion. Enjoy your new home & continue to pray for us as you always did. Remember mom "I love you more". Til we meet again, Judy

Truer words were never spoken. The most wonderful Mom in the whole wide world. She will truly be missed. She touched everyone's life in so many ways. I am sure she is leading the choir in Heaven as she loved to sing. I can still hear her sing "I Surrender All" when I close my eyes. What a true example of a good christian. We all love you bunches as Joey would say. Rest In Peace. Joyce
