“ Karen, I'm sorry to hear that your sweet mother is gone. She was a unique and delightful soul that touched so many people. Of course I've known her my whole life, but after I moved back to town I always looked forward to seeing her at the polls. I pray that God's Love surrounds you and carries you through this.

I worked with Lorine at Auto Bearing and Parts while I was in college. She was always so helpful and sweet. She trained me there. I was only there for a year or so, but I remember her vividly and am glad I had the privilege to know her.
