

Louise Turner Carter

January 25, 1927 - March 8, 2013

Louise Turner Carter, 86, of Danville VA died on Friday, March 8, 2013 at Riverside Health and Rehab after being in declining health for several years.

Mrs. Carter was born in Danville, VA on January 25, 1927 a daughter of the late Willie Oliver Turner and the late Emma Lee Banks Turner. She spent all of her life in the Danville and Ringgold Communities where she was a spinner at the former Dan River Inc for 25 years until her retirement due to a disability. She was a member of Glen Hill Baptist Church and she loved quilting and sewing.

On May 10, 1947 she married the late Jack David Carter, Sr. who died on January 30, 1999.

Survivors include two daughters, Linda Carter DeHart and husband Danny of Danville, VA and Elaine Carter Shevos and husband George of Raleigh, NC; one sister Rosa Turner Hall of Danville, VA; nine grandchildren, ten great grandchildren, and two step great grandchildren.

In addition to her parents and husband she was predeceased by two sons, Jerry David Cater and Jack David Carter, Jr.; and one brother, Charlie Fleming Turner.

A graveside service will be conducted on Sunday, March 10, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. in Highland Burial Park with the Reverend Stephen Wright officiating.

Interment will follow the service in the cemetery.

The family will be at the residence of her daughter Linda and Danny DeHart. In lieu of flowers the family suggests that memorial donations be made to the Arthritis Foundation at 2201 W. Broad St, Suite 100, Richmond, VA 23220.

The family would like to express a special thank you to the nurses and CNAs on the West Wing at Riverside Health and Rehab for the special care and love that they gave Mrs. Carter.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Carter family.

Cemetery Details

Highland Burial Park

3049 North Main Street
Danville, VA