“ I am so sorry for your loss, I loved her so much she was a real honest true friend, always called me her special Yankee friend. Treated me like a daughter and my kids like hers. I worked with her from the day I came to Virginia and got my job. When I lost my husband earlier this year she called me and said I am always here for you if you need to talk. I will miss my friend, my confidant and a wonderful kind woman.
