“ Lynn,

I am so sorry to hear of Mamie's passing. She was a wonderful lady and will be missed. I have so many fond memories of us with her growing up in good old Danville. Remember sitting in the den watching Dynasty on tv assembling tiny rice bags to throw at your wedding? Hanging out just chatting with her and/or Felton, her in the stands at our softball games, did she ever miss one? Visiting your grandmother, Lucille and the rest of the Danville crew. Road trips to Charlotte to visit Mary, Abie and Mark, going shopping with the "twins" at Ivey's and then Dillard's, visiting James, Senora and Dana in Newport News, her delicious chili and teaching me to eat fried okra. I am not sure how she did that one, but I still like it. I think ketchup was involved. I remember her telling me as if it were yesterday, "Robin, if you do not like something, do not make a face, just say no thank you". I still practice that today. I truly feel like I have lost a member of my own family. Heaven is a little brighter now that she's there. I wish I could have made the service but I could not get there in time. Hugs and kisses to all. You are in my thoughts and prayers, Robin
