“ Dear Ginger,

I was so very, very sorry to hear of your Grandmother's passing. I know you loved her dearly and will surely miss her. She is, however, in a much better place with nothing but love, sunshine and smiles! So, whenever you think of her try to remember these things and it will bring a smile on your face and warmth to your heart. She knows how much you dearly loved her so please find comfort in that as well. Right about now, I'm sure she's probably walking with your dad, holding hands and chatting with Jesus! Oh what joy!!

Again, I am so sorry for your loss but she is TRULY at peace now.

*With love,
Patsy*

“ Margaret, was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. Always the same . A smile on her face and joking around. I always felt like she was my aunt to, instead of my aunts sister in law. She was the first to cut my hair at age 8 yrs but she told Mama she did not want to! I will always remember Margaret and smile. Love Judy Wall Chaney
