“ MeMe was one of the most special people I have ever known - I will miss her every day. It seems that so many of my memories took place at her home - during my childhood and for family get togethers. I love you MeMe for all that you ever did for me - all the kind words - all the hugs you handed out - and all the great memories!

“ To all of you, we send our condolences. We were just heartbroken to hear of Margaret's passing. And it was such a surprise. Will not be able to attend because we are babysitting but our hearts will be with you. She was one of the nicest people who was always willing to help others. Our prayers are with you.
