“ To the family and loved ones of Mark we offer our sincerest thoughts and prayers to you. Mark was such a good worker and person to confide with . A very well liked and honorable person. I use to walk to him often about this time of year because his job station connected to mine and we'd share our thoughts about our woeful Cowboy's...Mark we will all miss you thanks for helping me keep my belts running... I know you are in Heaven now and have the best seats in the house
