“ John, I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. I knew Mary from the hospital, and met up with her several times on bus trips after we both had retired. She was a very nice lady and a good nurse. I pray that God will comfort you in His eternal love.

“ My most sincere and heartfelt condolences to the Bartholomew family. I'm so sad that I only got to meet Mary at the very end, but from the stories I have heard from the past few days, it's clear that she was a kind and fiercely strong woman. Those qualities I see reflected in the surviving family she left behind that I have come to know and love.

“ My grandma was the sweetest, strongest woman I've ever met. She never put herself above those she loved, always sacrificing for her own. My fondest memories are of the amazing meals we would share together with Josh, Scott, and I. I hope and pray I will see her again someday, she and my father Harold both. I love you grandma, thank you for being there with me in your final moments. When you grabbed my hand and looked in my eyes, I saw such strength in you, I couldn't have weathered this without that. You'll always be with me. Rest well, grandma, I can't wait to see you and dad again someday.

Very well said. We enjoyed many wonderful memories as kids being with our grandmother and she always made sure that we were very well fed. She had such a golden heart
