“ Dale was someone I always looked up to. His heart was as big as the equipment that he operated, daily. He was always quick to tell me how fat I was getting, but it was just Dale being honest. I loved that he was honest and told you like it is!

I have many stories of Dale but the one my family enjoys the most goes as such -

Dale and Debbie were at our house just before Christmas, my family had gathered for dinner and they joined us. My sister in law, Isa had made tamales like she does for us every Christmas. As we all started diving into the tamales and commenting on how good they were - Dale stated that his were too hard and he could not chew them?

Dale was eating the tamales without removing the corn husk that they were wrapped in! After removing the corn husk, I think he enjoyed them quite well! We laughed for days about that, and not a Christmas goes by that someone doesn't bring that evening back to life.

I am so very grateful for the hospitality and friendship that both Dale and Debbie has shown to me and my family. Dale will be missed greatly! Debbie, you are in our hearts and prayers, we love you much!

“ Cherokee was such a great guy and was so fun to be around and would help anyone if he could. I remember he use to have this old red bug car and I asked ro drive it to the store and or was a straight gear. Anyway he said if you can get it in reverse you can drive it and laughed needless say his face was priceless as I drove away in his car!
