

Mervin Pruitt

August 20, 1940 - August 16, 2012

Mervin Ray Pruitt, Sr., 71, of 3765 Spring Garden Road, Chatham, VA, died Thursday, August 16, 2012 at Danville Regional Medical Center after a decline in his health for the past year.

Mr. Pruitt was born in Halifax County, VA on August 20, 1940 a son of the late Thomas Daniel Pruitt and the late Louise Hawker Pruitt. He lived most of his life in Danville, VA and Pittsylvania County, VA.

He owned and operated Tightsqueeze Golf Shop and was owner and operator of the former Barker Hamlin Tire Co. for twenty years. He retired from the Woodall Automotive Group where he had worked as a salesman for eight years.

Mr. Pruitt was of the baptist faith and he was active for a number of years in youth baseball in the city of Danville.

He is survived by his wife, Carol Bouldin-Pruitt, of Danville, VA; four sons, Mervin Ray Pruitt, Jr., of Martinsville, VA, Ronald Allen Pruitt, of Sutherlin, VA, Thomas Daniel Pruitt, of Sutherlin, VA, and Justin Bouldin, of Chatham, VA; two daughters, Rhonda Lynn Pruitt, of Danville, VA; and Danielle Bouldin, of Chatham, VA; two grandchildren, Ashley N. Pruitt, Roanoke, VA, and Chelsea L. Pruitt, Martinsville, VA; three sisters, Ruth P. Barley, of Danville, VA, Ruby P. Rogers, of Ringgold, VA, and June P. Bailey, of Ringgold, VA.

He was predeceased by a sister, Ann P. Rasmussen.

Funeral services will be private.

Wrenn-Yeatts North Main Chapel is serving the Pruitt family.

Tribute Wall

BM

“ Our deepest sympathy to all of Uncle Mervin's family and friends. May you find comfort in the days ahead knowing that he is with our Heavenly Father. Rest in peace with Granny, Papa and Aunt Ann until we meet you on the other side.

Billy & Kathy Moore - August 18, 2012 at 12:00 AM