“ Deepest and sincere sympathies to Melinda and all of the Dalton family. I enjoyed working with Mike many years at Goodyear. Also enjoyed working with both he and Melinda on GWHS memorabilia for their class of 1968 reunions which my wife Linda shared. I was fortunate I had the chance to have a good visit recently with both Mike and Melinda at their home. Praying that our merciful God will continue to hold you close.

“ Melinda, Jamie, Alan and Cheryl please accept my deepest condolences in the passing of Mike. I remember most recently sharing some time in warm friendly conversations at Westside Diner. I was impressed with Mike's positive attitude and yes, his smile. I will pray that you can find comfort in Billy Graham's quote "Heaven is our Home...place of complete Peace..." Michael Stowe

“ Sincere sympathies to the entire family. Mike was a truly kind and thoughtful person who worked tirelessly for our Class of '68 GWHS Reunion Committee. Melinda, I am so sorry for your loss. Future reunions will not be the same without him by your side keeping all of us straight! I remember the first reunion that we attended a homecoming game and gave each classmate a huge bag of confetti to toss with each hometown score, There were some upset folks in the stands that night and plenty of people who re-located to some other bench where they wouldn't be showered with that tiny confetti. I think Mike especially liked watching people being "irked" at our celebrations and confetti conceptions throughout the entire night, "Go rest high on that mountain," Susan Floyd Bennett
