“ I was sorry to hear about Mike ,I grew up with him and my Daddy use to ride to work with his Dad to Dan River Mills. He really was a good guy, so kind. Always the type of person that did not want to hurt anyone's feeling. He and his sister was a gift to my child hood and to the many kids that grew up,in the Glenwood club so to speck ! He will be missed,

“ I met Mike on beautiful sunny day at an ole Hang Out called Henry's Mill in Halifax County. We instantly struck up a conversation with one another and remained friends from that day on.....Spent many happy times with him at the Pirate's Cove and dancing to that last song of the night! He was a special guy and had a heart of gold. Wish things could have been better for him but they are now and his earthly struggles are over. RIP Mike and know that I won't ever forget you! My condolences to his sister, Teresa, her sons and his extended family! Signed: Kristy Clay
