“ Mike and I graduated from Dan River High School together. I would ride with him in his car to school each morning and it was a really nice car. He liked nice cars! Mike was pretty quiet and he was a gentleman. My heart goes out to Mary and family. I last saw him at my brother Steve's funeral a year ago and he was so funny sharing his thoughts about high school and how when the girls started wearing those short dresses he didn't understand how in the world he could keep his mind on school! LOL.
