“ My daughter, Angie, and Michelle were very close friends in high school . Michelle would come over and they would share all the good & tough times that they were experiencing. Michelle always had that beautiful smile which would “Light Up A Room”. Rest In Peace, sweet girl 🙏❤️

“ I don't know where to start. We went to GW together, she worked at our church, she worked with my husband at master gage and tool for many years, we worked at my bank both of them and she Shined everywhere she went. I have brought her my fresh tomatoes every year even through the bank teller window 😭 We are in the same book club and chatted on phone for years. Your soul will forever be with mine Chelle, and never forgotten ❤️

“ Bichelle! Not a typo, but what Zachary called you when he was a baby! Only explaining for others, you know! Michelle & I have been friends since October 1978! We shared many fun times together! We loved alligators for personal reasons and she never failed to contact me every July 3 for what we called National alligator Day! I know Michelle is at peace and no longer suffering any kind of pain, physical or mental! I can't begin to express my own grief! It is like one more piece of my childhood has been taken away! One more person who remembers stuff that only someone from my family would know is gone! We shared many laughs, many tears, teen girl dramas, adult women dramas and traumas, yet my memories will always come with a smile! Much, much love from Issa! Much much love from Anthony too! Sending big squishy hugs of love and sympathy to all of Michelle's family and friends! I wish I had one of the many see no evil, hear no evil and speak no evil pictures of me, Michelle & my sister amy to share, but can't put my hands on any of them!
