“ I just wanted to say how much I dearly loved my Aunt Mickey and will miss her. I enjoyed our family visits for so many years and the funny stories that she used to tell us about her childhood with her brothers and sisters. I learned a lot of good values from her and know that her legacy of love will be with us a long time. May you rest in peace. Always, your niece, Gale.

“ You will always be in my heart, and I will feel your hand in mine. Every part of the circle of our lives has been a special, precious gift. As a child my little sister Jeannie and I would wait eagerly at the bus stop, for you to arrive from work with a special gift. As a teenager, I would call you and tell you all about my school day, for hours, even though you lived just next door. Though you were 11 years older, you were my best friend and we loved to laugh and cry in movies, go roller skating, sun bathing at Pine Lake and ride around in Red's car hollering and screaming at him up on a pole. When I moved away as a new bride, I told you I didn't believe I could love my own children as much as I loved your's. I learned from you how to be a mother and we shared the experiences of our children throughout our lives. In these later years we talked on the phone for four and five hours at the time, sharing those experiences over and over again, books we love to read, old movies, stories from our childhood that I had no memory of. We shared everything that we needed to...

“ Mrs. Stephens was a beautiful gracious lady. Even though we had our problems that I deeply regret, they were my fault. I always respected and admired her. She's with Red now and I know in perfect health and happy. My prayers of comfort to her family.
