“ What a true and wonderful "Lady" your mother was! She was such a real friend to our Mama, Loraine, and to our family. She was always Big Myrna to us. Always full of laughter and kindness. In our growing up years living at the bottom of the hill was great to have such friends at the top of the hill and the fun we had visiting each other. Your Mom was a gem. My love goes out to all of you. Judy (Moore) Mills

“ I remember as a small boy riding in the back seat with my cousins and Aunt Myrna driving up the dirt road to Grand Daddy's farm so fast it scared the devil right out of me and her laughing all the way up the hill. She was so much fun.
