“ Hi World , It's 2020 and I'm still missing Frank Sinatra's biggest fan.. taking only a 2nd seat to March Madness College basketball ( Nan-C Hill). I first met Nancy in 1986 when I came to work at Moses Cone. She was truly a unique person, we'd love & get mad at each other almost daily but at the end of the night it was always "come here my little gal,you know I think the world of you ". When I had my daughter Arielle, she was practically the 3rd "Nana"... We'd visit her at Cornwallis & when she moved to Danville.
I miss my Friend!

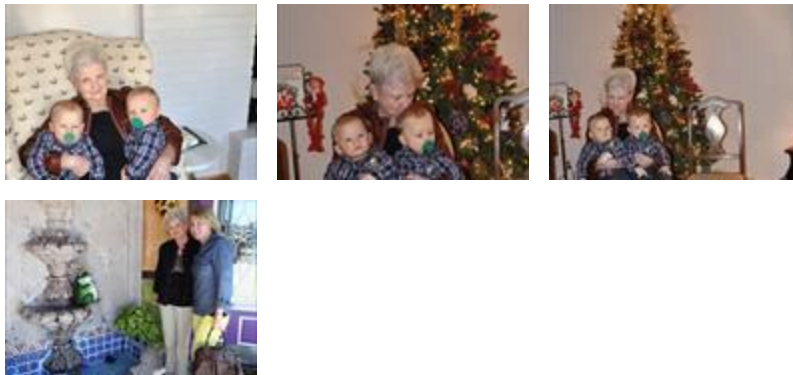

Love you Forever
Your Little Girl " Gail"

“ I met Nancy for the first time in the fall of 2014. I would travel to Danville each Friday evening with my good friend Paul Marshall, and we would go out to dinner with Nancy after we went to the Hobby Lobby, CV&S, and Lowes Hardware. She would always crack me up with her stories. I know that she looked forward to our visits and she loved going out to dinner, but only at the restaurants that had ATMOSPHERE. We loved going to The Golden Leaf restaurant in downtown Danville. I am so thankful that I made it to her 85th Birthday Party. We had an awesome time that night going out to dinner at Steaks on the Square and then visiting with her sister Mary. Nancy will be missed by all and I am thankful for the friendship we shared.

“ If it hadn't been for a wonderful person, Paul Marshall of Greensboro, we would have never met Ms. Nancy Hill! The first time my mom and I met her we immediately fell in love with her! Her wonderful personality made you laugh all the time and all the wonderful stories she could tell us! She was definitely one of a kind! After we always would go for dinner and return to her home she would not let you leave without her making you a banana split! RIP Ms. Nancy! You will be truly missed and we shall meet again one day, until then Go Rest High On That Mountain! We loved you dearly!

“ To my favorite Aunt - who was caring, funny and gracious. Always in my corner, greatly loved my children and my grandchildren, we'll miss you. I never heard her say a bad word about anyone....but with a sweet southern drawl could put you in your place at any time.
Love you and miss you,
Your nephew, Mike

PS Hope to see you you in the future :-)

“ Everyone loved Nancy! She was sweet, funny and full of humor! I always enjoyed our visits when we traveled to Danville. She was my husband Mike's Auntie, and a wonderful Aunt to my three kids (Marissa, Megan and Dayne) and to me! She was a loving Grandma Auntie to all five of my grandkids! Their pictures were on every wall and in every frame in the house and taped up wherever she could find a spot! When Aiden came along she decorated a whole wall! When twins Henry and Hayes were born she had to find a new wall for all the pictures. Then we added sweet niece, Aubrey, adding more pictures and I'm so sad she did not get to meet her newest, Grand Niece, Presley! She would have loved her! Nancy used to babysit my daughter, Marissa, when she was a baby! I came home one day to find that she and Grandma Mary had put blush and make-up on the baby! It was funny! Nancy loved life to the fullest! She was a great lover of music! When she found out I moved to Memphis she said that was Elvis country and she was loving it!. Sadly, she did not make it down for a visit in recent years - but she and Bill did drive down together many years ago! We had a blast on Beale Street! She was a wonderful spirit and we all loved her so much! She loved her sister, Mary, and all her family! Rest in peace, Jus-Nan-C! I know you are in the arms of the Lord right now and enjoying heavenly peace!

Thanks, Paul for putting the tribute together! She adored you!

Love and Hugs Always,
Mike & Donna Searce

“ I'm so glad we got to see Aunt Nancy last May, and she got to meet Aubrey. She loved her "children" as anyone would know walking in her house. I will miss her pizza party's, flirty spirit, and sweet soul. I wish we had a chance to see you again, but know I'll see you again in heaven. We love you very much, and will miss hearing your sweet voice. I take comfort in knowing you're one of our angels now. Love, Megan, Derek, Aiden, and Aubrey
