

Nancy Womack

August 4, 1947 - April 8, 2009

Nancy Carol Womack, 61, of 1732 Dry Fork Rd. died on the afternoon of Wednesday April 8, 2009 at her residence. Nancy was born on August 4, 1947 to the late John Robert Womack and the late Irene Hill Womack. She lived all of her life in the Danville area. Nancy came into the world struggling to live and left us struggling. Nancy was a member of Glenwood Memorial Baptist Church in Danville but she attended Oakland United Methodist Church at Dry Fork. Nancy attended the Richard Smith School in Danville. She started at the school when it was first organized by the Reverend Richard L. Smith. She then attended the Fred T. Hatcher center. The Hatcher Center was the sunshine of her life until January 2008 when she suffered a broken leg and a stroke. The Hatcher Center dismissed her and it broke her heart. Then a special group called Negril Inc. made a way for her to go to Carvaga Industries where she made many special friends. The family would like to thank all the wonderful people who made her life worth while, the members of the church, people of the centers and the medical personnel. Nancy is survived by a brother, Danny Womack, also a sister, Betty Adkins and her husband Willard Adkins, and a nephew, Jeff Adkins. Nancy was predeceased by a brother, James Neal Womack. Funeral services will be held Friday April 10, 2009 at 2:00 P.M. at Oakland United Methodist Church with the Reverend Larry Mann and the Reverend Averette Witcher officiating. Interment will be in Highland Burial Park. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service at the church and other times at the residence.
