“What can I say about my Nanny? I will definitely miss our phone conversations and visits, although we hadn't been able to visit lately due to the pandemic. I'll always remember how much fun we had during our last visit, talking and reminiscing about how much fun we had when we all got together at Christmas time! I know you are rejoicing with Jesus now! Please tell my parents how much I miss and love them. We'll all see each other again one day! Like I would always say when we would end our phone calls, "I sure do love you!" Love, Your Granddaughter Kelly Shepherd Allen

“ Donnie, please receive my heartfelt condolences on the passing of your dear Mother. I still remember the perpetual smile Naomi wore decades ago; she exuded happiness much of the time.

Kelly, I have the utmost sympathy for you at this time. Your heart will mend, and in the meantime, Naomi will be visiting with the many loved ones who preceded her passing. I can see them welcoming her home; your parents, your first cousin, and many other family members.

*May God Bless and comfort you,
