“ I taught Crystal, Quentin, and Natalie at Bartlett Yancey and remember them all fondly. I'm so sorry for the loss of Natalie. She was such a courageous teenager and a sweet spirit. May God grant you peace as you cope with your loss.

“ I first met Natalie at Quentin and Elaine's wedding. What I remember most is the pure joy shining in her face. She loved every minute of the wedding and reception. Her face must have been tired with all the smiling! To love as deeply as she most surely did is a gift. You were surely blessed to have her love. May you find peace and comfort as you cherish her beautiful spirit.
