

Odessa Hubbard Patterson

November 3, 1920 - February 9, 2014

Odessa Hubbard Patterson died Sunday, Feb. 9, 2014 at Roman Eagle Memorial Home.

Born Nov. 3, 1920, she was the daughter of Gratton T. Hubbard and Beulah Hackworth Hubbard. She married Jacob Bethel Patterson on May, 6, 1939. He died Dec. 13, 1996. A lifelong resident of Danville, she was initially employed at Dan River Mills and retired as a seamstress from Frances Kahn ladies clothing store in Danville.

She is survived by a daughter, Judith P. French of Highland Springs, VA and two sons, David H. Patterson and Jacob B. Patterson Jr. of Danville, a sister Hazel H. Jennings of Danville, and a brother Halton T. Hubbard of Burlington, NC. She also leaves 6 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren, 1 great great grandchild, and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by sisters Louise H. Buchanan and Orena H. Haynes.

The funeral will be held Feb. 12 at 2:00 p.m. at Grace Design United Methodist Church, 1064 Franklin Turnpike, Danville, officiated by Rev. Kameron Wilds. Interment will be at Highland Burial Park. Visitation will be held at the church one hour before the service. At other times the family will be at the residence of David Patterson, 233 Motley Ave., Danville.

In lieu of flowers the family requests contributions be made to Grace Design U.M.C. or the charity of choice.

Wrenn Yeatts Funeral Home at North Main Chapel is serving the family.

“ Childhood memories always included trips to Danville. We stayed with Odessa and played with our cousins. It was a real treat and adventure. Odessa provided home away from home . We loved her very much and it is a comfort to know that her spirit is with the Lord Jesus Christ. Our prayers are with the family and friends at this sad time .
