

Pamela Taylor Davis

November 22, 1949 - June 26, 2025

Pamela Taylor Davis, born November 22, 1949, in Danville, VA, passed peacefully on June 26, 2025, after several battles with health issues.

Pam's passions were always helping others. She understood what it meant to be a servant to your neighbor and she never met a stranger. She attended George Washington High and after getting married she obtained her GED. She realized her lifelong dream of being a nurse when she became an LPN through Danville Community College in 1981. She graduated from the Danville Memorial Hospital School of Nursing as a Registered Nurse in 1988.

She worked most of her nursing career at Danville Memorial Hospital (now Sovah Regional). She worked at the old 5 Central (Orthopedic) Unit, the Critical Care Unit, and Psychiatry/Rehab Unit. She loved her family and friends, especially her grandchildren. She loved the beach, the lake, the mountains, and traveling. It was nothing for her to go somewhere at the spur of the moment.

She is survived by her sons Tim (Michelle) Earle, of Clinton, IL and Jamie (Lindsey) Davis of Danville, VA and her grandchildren Alayna, Carley, Tensley, and Emmie.

She was preceded in death by her husband Craig Beatty, eldest son Tommy Earle, parents L. Jacob (Blanche Dalton) Taylor, and older brother Leroy J. Taylor.

Funeral services will be conducted on Tuesday, July 1, 2025 at 11:00 A.M. at the Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel with Pastor Timothy Earle officiating. Interment will follow the service in Highland Burial Park.

The family will receive friends on Monday evening from 6:00 P.M. to 7:30 P.M. at the funeral home and at other times will be at the residence.

In lieu of flowers, please send contributions to The Mount Herman Fire and Rescue 4268 Franklin Turnpike, Danville, VA 24540.

Wrenn-Yeatts Westover Chapel is respectfully serving the Davis family.

“ *Dear Tim, Jamie, & family,
Pam & I were at Danville Regional Hospital for many years. That is how we met. Not only did Pam have a way about her that could brighten any day, but her presence was like a ray of sunshine with her laughter, kindness, & her words of encouragement. She was a remarkable lady & a loyal friend. Pam was greatly respected by all who knew her. Your mom was no stranger to pain & suffering, but she handled it with grace. Let the faith by which she lived be a heritage to you. I'm so thankful for having Pam as a friend & for the precious memories of her. I pray the Lord will provide the comfort you need during this season of grief. Marie Reed*

“ Worked with Pam in Critical Care and also took EKG and Critical Care classes that I taught: therefore Pam became one of my " kids ". Respected the compassion and great care Pam gave her patients. She, definitely , was a team player and I and her co-workers enjoyed working with her. Enjoyed our friendship after retirement.
