“ To the Haley Family,

My deepest condolences during this very difficult time. When I heard of Pam's passing, I was very saddened by the news. You probably don't know me, but I met Pam in elementary school. Ever since that time, I always remembered her as a very nice person - to this day. The last time I saw her was at our 20th year high school reunion. As I stood in a crowd of other classmates, she came to me, greeted me, and made me appreciate the opportunity to see her after all these years. Although I missed the next 4 reunions, I went to the 45th just a few weeks ago, and looked for her. I wanted to hear about her children and grandchildren, and tell her that I'm glad to see her after 25 years. Again, my condolences .... Pam was a very nice (thoughtful) person.

“ Heather, Jamie, Amanda and families,

I have so many memories of Pam. She and Lee were two special people and their love for each other never changed no matter what. Even after his death, she still talked about him and how much she loved and missed him. There were times during the several months that I stayed with her that I know she knew what was going on. She couldn't express her feeling like we can but in her mind and world she knew what was going on. Thanks for allowing me those months before Lee's death and after to be with Pam. I have many memories but a couple of special ones are the walks in the morning around the neighborhood , listening to the birds singing and looking at the pretty flowers. She loved flowers. Going to Mama Possum's for a hot dog was also a very special time Thanks to all of you for the love, and the care you gave both of your parents. There is no doubt that Pam and Lee are dancing. This was another thing she loved. We will all miss her but Heaven has gained another Angel.

Love to All

“ Heather, Jamie and Amanda,

My thoughts and prayers are with you. Pam and I were like sisters growing up. We were the same age and our birthdays were only a month apart. We lived 1/2 block from each other and did everything together. I have missed not living close by and seeing her as often as I could. I will see her again in Heaven and I can only imagine how happy and healthy she is now. My love is sent to you all.
