“ Patti had a tender golden heart, always willing to help, and always giving. She loved gardening and antique window shopping. I had the pleasure of meeting Patti 27 years ago when she scolded me for talking out of turn in court. We remained friends for 27 years. Our fondest memories were watching Christmas Hallmark movies in the den in front of her wood stove, traveling to N Myrtle Beach for SOS and going to dinner. My family and I always enjoyed having Patti at Thanksgiving where she blessed us with Aunt Iris' economy pound cake or Patti's own apple pie. It was such a a shock to hear that we lost Patti. Patti and I talked about the goodness of the Lord often. She told me often that we were blessed and we were. She is with the Lord now and my prayer now for all of us that knew this beautiful and kind woman, is that the pain of her loss be replaced with forever precious memories of her. Rest in peace, Patti. You were my very best friend. Adrian Phillips

“ For 22 years I had the pleasure of working with Patti in the 15-A Judicial District, first as a prosecutor and later as superior court judge. Patti was an excellent court reporter and good friend. She made our court system work efficiently, smoothly, accurately, and pleasantly for judges, prosecutors, defense attorneys, clerks, and probation officers alike, and all others with whom she came into contact. She set high standards for herself and that showed in the way she went about performing her duties. She shared those values with her fellow court reporters around the state through their state association. Patti also shared her love of horses. All of us in the court family will carry fond memories and miss her dearly.

“ I am so sad to hear about Patti, she was such a bright light and breath of fresh air. She was always so positive and passionate for life. I met Patti as a young lawyer in the Courtroom and she always was a pleasure to be around and was so considerate to every person she came across, plus she was really, really good at what she did. My heart goes out to Patti's family, and sending thoughts of peace and comfort in this difficult time. Rest in peace, Patti.

“ Patti was such a tireless warrior and champion for Court Reporters, the first founding President of Association of Court Reporters, now some 20 years ago, giving voice to NC court reporters in the state. Her passion for whatever project she took on through life will be sorely missed and fondly remembered. Godspeed, Patti.

“ Patti was a wonderful person. She was so kind and would help you in any way possible. She was very knowledgeable about many things and free to share any wisdom she had that might be helpful to you. She loved her horse, Waco, and her dogs. I admired her so much for all she accomplished and for her resourcefulness and her great kindness and thoughtfulness towards everyone she knew. She lived her faith and had a sensitive heart for God. We will miss her greatly!

Patti was a kind and caring person, and a hard worker. She loved her dogs, chickens, and horse and took excellent care of them. She loved being outside and working in her garden and flowers. Most of all, she loved people and taking care of them. She took excellent loving care of her brother when he was injured and ill. She was so good to her Aunt Iris and Uncle Randolph (my parents), visiting them often and looking after them. She was like a second daughter to them. I miss her so much.

I am so sad to hear about Patti. Patti and I took driver's ed together learning how to do our 3-point road turns and parallel parking in the big city of Mebane. We graduated in 1975 and continue to keep in touch going to lunch on several occasions. I will miss you and your help. Rest in peace, my friend and classmate.
