She was a beautiful lady and remained young at heart all her life. She will be greatly missed by all of us.

“ My great aunt "Pattie" went on to her reward yesterday. Just a couple months shy of her 100th birthday. She was a force of nature. Always with an unbelievably incredible sense of humor and love for those around her. A definite steel magnolia who could make you bust up laughing and then just as quickly call you on the carpet with a truth that would cut you to the quick and leave you stunned and penitent. She believed in decency to each other above all else, and there was never a good excuse to not do so. She also had a powerful singing voice that she shared with us and the church. She loved me and would always make a point to remind me of that. The feeling was mutual. I am lucky to have had such a magnificent woman in my life. I will miss her fantastic gift of truth-telling no matter what. I can only strive to carry on the lessons she taught me about love, truth, getting on with it, finding the humor in most things, fearlessly sharing your gifts with the world and "don't take no mess..." She was lucky to have been married to one of the most fantastic men you would ever want to meet. My great uncle "Kenny". Always kind ,always smart who also shared her love for the humorous side of things. They can now tell each other some new jokes. You are loved and will be missed, Aunt Pattie...

“ I met Pattie through Ray. We'd go to Roman Eagle every Sunday and of course, Ray had his candy box. We always started our visits with Annie then Pattie, Hattie along with others. Pattie had a great sense of humor and a quick wit to match Ray's. Ray would always look at her Sunday paper to which she's always quip, "Why don't you get your own?" and Ray would say, "why, when I've got yours to read." They'd also tease each other on who was more deaf. After over year of not going due to Ray's stroke, then his passing, I went to see her a few weeks ago. I noticed a big change, but she recognized me and had a big smile. Now she's with her sister and I'm sure she and Ray are still joking with each other. My prayers and love go out to her family. I was blessed to have gotten to know both Annie and Pattie. God Bless.

“ Dear Joann and TC,
I remember taking Christmas cards from the church to Pattie. I sat and talked with her lots of times when my mom was in the nursing home last year. She was a joy and shining light in my life. I remember helping to give a surprise party for Pattie on her 90th birthday at church. She meant so much to me. We shared February birthdays together . She would always be willing to listen and laugh with you.

Love,

“ Dear family,
I did not know Pattie personally, but I wanted to express my deepest sympathy. At times like this, I have found Jesus Christ's words at John 5:28,29 to be truly comforting. There he promised that "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrection of life." I look forward to that time so much. Feel free to contact me at the email address attached. Again, I'm so sorry for your loss and I'll keep you in my prayers.
