

Patty Yeatts Turner

December 24, 1952 - April 4, 2026

Patty Yeatts Turner, 73, of Danville, went home to be with her Lord on Saturday, April 4, 2026 at SOVAH Danville.

Patty was born in Danville on December 24, 1952 to the late Noble Wilson Yeatts and Katherine Crowder Yeatts.

Patty was a graduate of Dan River High School, Class of 1971. She worked as a lab technician in the Danville hospital for 30 years. She was a devoted member of St. Mark's Pentecostal Holiness Church.

On February 10, 1973, she married Michael Lee Turner, who preceded her in death on January 3, 2013.

Patty is survived by her sisters, Joy Yeatts Garber (Jim), Kathy Yeatts Richardson (David), and Pamela Yeatts Campbell; a very special sister-in-law, Carolyn McGuire (Donnie); special nieces and nephew, Joy Katherine Thompson (Paul), Jenna Campbell (Garrett), Davey Richardson (Jennifer), and Madison Edwards (Colby); and great nieces and nephews, McKinley Lewis, Beckett Edwards, Ainsley Edwards, Bryan Garber, Adeline Harper, Will Campbell and Ben Campbell.

In addition to her husband, Patty was predeceased by her brother, Barry Lee

Yeatts; and nephew, William Clinton Campbell.

Graveside services for Patty will be held at 11:00 AM on Wednesday, April 8, 2026 at Highland Burial Park.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorial donations be made to St. Mark's Pentecostal Holiness Church, 1201 South Boston Road, Danville, VA 24540.

Wrenn-Yeatts Funeral Homes, North Main Chapel is respectfully serving the family.

“ So very sorry for such a great loss. Grew up in Glenwood where we all went to same school from first grade to twelfth. It was like a large family where we all played together when we were young to being close friends since. Patty was such a sweet person and you never saw her that she didn't have that giant smile on her face. Patty will certainly be missed!
