One of my fondest memories of childhood were Easters, when the Kuykendalls returned to E. Flat Rock for a few days. We had the best times with Donna and Vicky who were our ages. And I just loved Pauline ... she was such a sweet, kind spirit with a very positive energy and a touch of mischief. The world was a better place with her in it.

“ I remember Pauline and her husband when I attended Gateway Baptist Church as a child. Paul and Pauline were part of the choir. The both had lovely voices. I remember my favorite hymn they would sing was "Never Grow Old". I have always remembered that song and them. They were kind people, and they are now in a land where they will never grow old. My deepest condolences to the family during this time.
