“ I was sorry to learn of the death of Peggy Howard Milam. She taught me 8th grade English, 2 years of French, and Senior English. She was kind enough to remember me as a better student than I was in her classes.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Peggy's death. She brightened up our community so much. I'll always remember her hospitality when we were all young girls playing together. She was an amazing educator by her example and her teaching. We'll never forget the homeschool French lessons she taught my boys. Love you all! Praying for you.- Lisa Bowers Granby

“ To the family, I extend my deepest sympathy in your loss. Mrs. Milam was one of my teachers at Dan River High School, and she was our home room teacher in our senior year, 1959. Our class adored her so much for her dedication and caring for us. As a matter of fact, she attended our 50th class reunion; and I was so happy to see her and visit with her at that time. She was a true treasure. God has certainly welcomed home one of His Angels.
